WHO'S WHO AMONG THE SPEAKERS

ROBERT CAREY, Governor of District No. 182, New Jersey, is a member of the National Republican Committee, the New York State Bar and the United States District, Circuit and Supreme Courts, was corporation attorney of Jersey City and Judge of the Hudson County Court of Common Pleas for six years, and is counsel for the Jersey City Chamber of Commerce and Y. W. C. A. He is a member of the New Jersey State Board of Taxation and trustee for the New Jersey State Home for Boys. He has been a member of the Jersey City Rotary Club for 16 years and is a welcome speaker wherever he goes.

CHARLES CORWIN WHITE, New York City, is a young man who has made an impression upon American life by virtue of his success as a speaker all over the country. He was born in New Jersey, is a graduate of Pawling School, Pawling, N. Y., and of Yale University. Following an experience in the building business, he became President of a chain of fifteen hotels, the Manger Hotel in Boston having been built under his direction.

MILDRED BUCHANAN FLAGG, Boston. Lecturer and author, world traveller, editor and "ghost writer", Mrs. Flagg is the wife of District Governor Francis J. Flagg, of District No. 196 and is very active in club and community activity. After receiving the A. B. and M. A. degrees with Phi Beta Kappa honors, Mrs. Flagg was head of the English department of a large New York school. She has been president of a number of state wide organizations in Massachusetts, and has written the following books, "A Boy of Salem", "Plymouth Maid", "Community English" and "Camera Adventures in Africa" as well as many articles.

LESLIE R. FORT, son of former Governor Fort of New Jersey. Formerly in the newspaper business, now a printer in Plainfield, N. J. District Governor District No. 183. Active in the Community Chest, Chamber of Commerce, the city and state Y. M. C. A. Former President of the Plainfield Rotary Club which he joined ten years ago.

CHARLES WAYLAND BROOKS, Senator from Illinois. Distinguished orator, soldier, and ardent American, well qualified to speak to the subject of his address. Born Wyanet, Bureau County, Illinois. Left University of Illinois to enlist in war. Promoted on field of battle from Corporal to Second Lieutenant, later to First Lieutenant, wounded seven times. Awarded D. S. C. (U. S. A.) and D. S. C. (U. S. Navy); Croix de Guerre (France), retired from the Army at age of 21. Returned to study of law, graduated LL. B., University of Chicago. Republican nominee for Governor of Illinois in 1936.

DONALD A. ADAMS of New Haven, President of Rotary International, 1925-26, was born at Windsor, Wisconsin, and was educated in the public schools of Wisconsin, Carleton College at Northfield, Minnesota, and Yale University. He began law practice in New York City, but in 1911 moved to New Haven and entered the insurance field. Later, with the establishment of a course in business administration at Yale University in 1913, he became the first instructor in business law, which position he held for 17 years. He was president of the New Haven Chamber of Commerce, member of the boards of numerous church and social service institutions, and chairman of the Layman's Advisory committee of the Congregational and Christian Churches of the United States.

Mr. Adams is a charter member of the Rotary Club of New Haven, and was club president. He has served Rotary International as district governor, first vice president, committee member and chairman, and president.

LOIS PERKINS MARECHAL is an American married to an eminent French musician. With her husband and her two children she left Paris a day in advance of the invading Germans and found a haven in a small town on the Spanish border and then in Marseilles. Last December she secured passage to America with her two children and is now in this country.

Madame Marechal is a graduate of the Sargent School of Dramatic Art in New York, and of Emerson College in Boston. She has played in the professional theater in repertory and was associated for a time with Yvette Guilbert. As wife of the celebrated French cellist, Maurice Marechal, she has been a resident of France for twenty years. During 1919 she served with the A. E. F. in France. More recently she has been broadcasting in Paris.

RALPH O. BREWSTER, Senator from Maine; born at Dexter, Maine, February 22, 1888; educated in the Dexter schools; graduated from Dexter High School, 1905, Bowdoin College, 1909, and Harvard Law School, 1913; principal of the Castine High School, 1910; admitted to the Maine bar in 1913; member of Portland school committee, 1915-23; representative to Maine Legislature, 1917-18; representative to Maine Legislature, 1921-22; senator 1923-24; Governor of Maine 1925-29; chairman Governors' conference 1926-27; married Dorothy Foss of Portland, Maine; elected Representative to Congress 1934; re-elected 1936; re-elected 1938; elected Senator 1940.

MAJOR-GENERAL E. G. BEAUMONT-NESBITT, C. V. O., M. C., was educated at Eaton and at Sandhurst, entered service as a member of the Grenadier Guards and served in the European War, 1914-1918. He commanded the 2nd Battalion Coldstream Guards, 1932-1935, and was Military Attache at Paris, 1936-1938, following which he was Deputy Director of Military Intelligence at the War Office, 1938. In 1941 he was appointed Military Attache at the British Embassy, Washington.

EVERYBODY SING

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing.
 Land where my fathers died!
 Land of the Pilgrims' pride!
 From ev'ry mountain side,
 Let freedom ring!

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To Thee we sing.
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by Thy might Great God, our King!

GOD SAVE THE KING

God save our gracious King,
 Long live our noble King,
 God save the King;
 Send him victorious,
 Happy and glorious,
 Long to reign over us,
 God save the King.

Thro' every changing scene,
 O Lord preserve our King,
 Long may he reign;
 His heart inspire and move
 With wisdom from above,
 And in a nation's love
 His throne maintain.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God Bless America, land that I love,
 Stand beside her—and guide her
 Thru the night with a light from above.
 From the mountains—to the prairies
 To the oceans—white with foam.
 God Bless America—my home sweet home,
 God Bless America—my home sweet home.

INTERNATIONAL SONG

Two empires by the sea,
 Two nations great and free
 One anthem raise,
 One race of ancient fame,
 One tongue, one faith, we claim,
 One God whose glorious name
 We love and praise.

Now may the God above
 Guard the dear lands we love;
 On east or west;
 Let love more fervent glow,
 As peaceful ages go,
 And strength yet stronger grow,
 Blessing and blest.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
 O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
 And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
 Oh say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

O, thus be it ever when free men shall stand
 Between their lov'd homes and the war's desolation!
 Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
 Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
 Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
 And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free and the land of the brave!

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies
 For amber waves of grain,
 For purple mountain majesties
 Above the fruited plain.
 America! America! God shed His Grace on thee,
 And crown thy good with brotherhood
 From sea to shining sea.

O CANADA!

O Canada! Our home, our native land,
 True patriot love in all thy sons command.
 With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
 The True North strong and free;
 And stand on guard, O Canada,
 We stand on guard for thee.
 O Canada! glorious and free!
 We stand on guard, we stand on guard for thee.
 O Canada we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada! Where Pines and Maples grow,
 Great prairies spread and lordly rivers flow.
 How dear to us thy broad domain,
 From East to Western sea,
 Thou land of hope for all who toil,
 Thou True North strong and free!
 O Canada! glorious and free!
 We stand on guard, we stand on guard for thee.
 O Canada we stand on guard for thee.

AMAPOLA

Amapola, my pretty little poppy,
 You're like that lovely flow'r so sweet and heavenly.
 Since I found you,
 My heart is wrapped around you
 And loving you, it seems to beat a rhapsody Amapola, the pretty little poppy must copy its endearing charm from you.
 Amapola, Amapola,
 How I long to hear you say
 I love you.

YOU WALK BY

You walk by, enchanting as a dream.
 You walk by and dim the sunlight's gleam.
 You speak words and shame the birds
 that sing.
 Your smile is softer than the touch of spring.
 You walk by and children pause at play.
 You walk by—December seems like May.
 Heaven is right here and not above,
 When you walk by, my love.
